

September 8, 2009

CARROLLTON, GA — September signals an end to summer and a start to cool weather activities including the annual League of Women Voters' Meet the League Open House.

The nonpartisan organization that is about to celebrate 50 years in Carrollton and Carroll County is hosting an information event at The Burson Center on Monday, September 14, at 7 p.m.

The Meet the League event will feature Keynote Speaker Tracey-Ann Nelson, executive director of the LWV of Georgia, a performance by Clear Rivers Chorus and red, white and blue refreshments. Ms. Nelson will present updates on the state and national LWV.

The League, which is NOT for women only, has raised the bar in this town with the Political Directory, Great Decisions, the Voter Guide, candidate forums and other voter education services.

The community is invited to learn more about the League of Women Voters of Carrollton - Carroll County and become more active in the democratic process.

Meet the League will be held at The Burson Center, a Carroll Tomorrow Initiative, and is located off Highway 27 North, on Old Bremen Road, less than three miles from Adamson Square.

For more information, e-mail carrollton@lwg.org or call 770-834-8111.